

6 tips to optimize your chances of finding a job with Adecco

7

- 1 Register on myadecco.lu and remember to regularly update your CV and search criteria.
- 2 Before coming for an interview, find out about the temporary employment agency (sectors, offers, groups, etc.) because if you are hired, you will be the ambassador of The Adecco Group.
- 3 Take care of your clothing. The image you convey to the consultant will influence the feedback they will give to the company.
- 4 Trust our consultants. They are in direct contact with companies. Do not apply or directly contact the company if you are already in progress through our agency.
- 5 Feel free to ask consultants about the companies, the job market or the position. They are professionals at the heart of the labor market and can give you useful advice.
- 6 And don't forget, a temp worker of today can become a customer of tomorrow within a company where they have signed a permanent contract following their mission. The quality of your partnership with the agency will facilitate your employability for the future.

